16.50-18.30 – PART 2

Amendments and Voting on the Final Declaration

Introduction and facilitation by Delphine, Marvin and Naomi

Moderation by the MYC Co-Presidents

- Presentation of the amendments (if any) by the Working groups & debates with participants (20 min)
  - Members of the Mediterranean Youth Council
  - Members of the Andalusian Youth Institute
  - Members of Talento Futuro
- Definition of the final versions of the amendments for the Plenary reading and voting (20 min)
- Vote on the bullet points and amendments to get to the Final text of the Declaration (30 min)

The voting session is reserved to MYC members only. The Co-Presidents should go through all bullet points and amended versions of the bullet points and put them to a vote.

- The bullet points from the Working groups that have not received amendments can be put directly to vote, since they were presented in the morning too and in the prior version of the Declaration distributed.
  - The bullet points that have received amendments should be read in their amended version – as per the previous session, and put to vote then.
  - Anyone can opt out a bullet point or amendment if the proposed final version does not reach an understanding. A bullet point or amendment is approved when it reaches absolute majority (half +1 of the total number of present voters).
- Synthesis and conclusions by the facilitators (5 min)
